COUNTY TAX RATE IS CUT TWO CENTS

Reduction by County Council When Appropriation Ordinance Calling for $87,247, is Passed

ONLY ONE ITEM IS REDUCED

Gravel Road Repair Fund Rate is Raised Two Cents at Recommendation of Commissioners

The county council in an adjourned session Saturday afternoon, passed the annual appropriation ordinance, calling for the expenditure of $87,247 and fixed the county tax rate at nine cents on each $100 of taxable, the gravel road repair fund tax at twelve cents and the gravel road bond and interest levy for each township.

The county tax rate was reduced two cents and the gravel road repair fund was increased two cents, the latter increase being made on the recommendation of the county board of commissioners, who said that more money would be needed next year to keep the free gravel roads of the county in repair.

In addition to the money raised from this levy, a sum estimated at $10,000 will be received for gravel road repair as the county's share of the gasoline tax from the state.

The county commissioners also met in special session Saturday afternoon and authorized the county auditor to advertise for bids for a car load of crosscut lumber for bridge flooring. The commissioners also appointed Frank Havens superintendent on construction on the Stewart road in this township.

The only change in the annual budget, as presented to the council, was a reduction of $5,000 in the proposed appropriation for new bridges next year.

This item of $10,000 was the largest in the ordinance, with the exception of one for $25,000, which is not raised by taxation, but has to be appropriated to be in accordance with the law. It is to take care of the commission which the county may have to pay special agents for the collection of sequestered taxes, the commission to come out of the taxes collected.

The following appropriations were made:

Clerks' office	$3,740
Auditor's office	4,550
Treasurer's office	3,400
Recorder's office	2,475
Sheriff's office	3,985
Surveyor's office	100
Superintendent's office	3,650
Assessor's office	1,221
Coroner's office	650
Health Commissioner	715

SCHOOL OFFICERS IN A CONFERENCE

County Officials in Charge of Attendance
Hear Address by Miss Blanch Merry Here

THEIR CO-OPERATION ASKED

State Attendance Officer Shows Officers of District That Results Have Been Obtained

County attendance officers from the eight counties in the Sixth district were here this morning in conference with Miss Blanch Merry, state attendance officer, who is holding congressional meetings all over the state in order to perfect the organization of the school officers for the new school year.

Miss Merry addressed the attendance officers for more than an hour this morning, and answered questions and urged co-operation.

Foremost among the topics that she pointed out to the attendance officers was the importance of making out their monthly reports on attendance in each county. This matter was emphasized last year, and good results obtained.

The purpose of the reports is to account for every school child, and get them in the school. The report also accounts for children who are defective, crippled or indisposed from attending school for some reason.

The attendance officers also are urged to grant working permits only to those children where a legal excuse can be given, and statistics along this line were introduced by Miss Merry showing what had been accomplished since 1920, when the child labor law was enacted.

Three years ago 96.2 percent of the school children were accounted for by the attendance officers of the state and in 1922, 97.6 percent accounted for, and in last year this was increased to 98.45 percent showing that the attendance officers throughout the state have co-operated in keeping a check on the children.

Miss Merry urged co-operation among the attendance officers, asking them to work with the teachers, rather than disturb the school organization.

Last year, Miss Merry stated that the attendance officers in the state made 193,917 visits in the various counties. In 1921 the attendance officers in the state accounted for 55,679 pupils of school age returning to school. In 1922 the records show 72,339 going back to school and last year 48,127 were returned.

The number of working permits has been reduced 10,000 within four years. In 1920, when the child labor law was first passed, there were 11,000 school children employed, and this number has been decreased so that today there are only a little more than 1,000 employed in the state, Miss Merry stated.

SHOOT OFF TO LANDING FIELD

City's Unofficial Welcome Swells
From Thousands of Throats as They Fly Over Broadway

(By United Press)

New York, Sept. 2.—Manhattan from vantage points on the roofs of lofty buildings, or at the bottom of wall street got its first glimpse of the world flyers at 3:15 today.

The city's unofficial welcome, a viva voce roar of "here they come" swelled from thousands of throats as the world airmen flew in "V" formation over Broadway.

Screaming automobile sirens, and jingling bells added to the deafening din of tug and ship whistles coming from the Hudson and East rivers on both sides of the island.

The airmen, scarcely a thousand feet above the city, circled around the tall spire of the Woolworth building and shot off to the eastward in the direction of Long Island and the landing place at Mitchell Field.

Boston, Sept. 2.—The United States army airmen took the air a few minutes after noon and accompanied by an aerial escort, winged their way overland towards Mitchell Field, New York, on one of the last laps of their epoch-making world flight.

Lieut. Lowell Smith, flight commander was the first of the round the world airmen to ascend, and Lieut. Nelson and Lieut. Leigh Wade were up practically simultaneously.

The three planes, equipped with landing wheels for the journey across the continent, circled over the air-drome here for a few minutes.

After a hard day's work on their machines, the fliers were up with the sun and over at the hangars for further careful inspection of their charges.

Twelve deHavilland scout planes and two Martin bombers were being tuned up to act as an escort on the Boston-New York flight.

A stiff breeze blew over the east Boston airport at 8 a. m. The harbor was covered by a light fog that was due to break up just as soon as the sun began to show its strength.

The weather forecast for Boston and vicinity was "fair and warmer" and the weather bureau announced

Arlington Horseshoe Team Awarded
First Prize and Silver Cup—Ties for First in Singles

Rush county exhibitors did well in the events in which they had entries at the Indiana state fair in Indianapolis last week, according to a list of awards made public today.

The premium winners in the horticulture department are largely a repetition of the names of J. K. Fielding of near Glenwood and Chris King living south of Rushville, who took the bulk of the prizes in the fruit classes.

Although Rush county was fifth in the county agricultural exhibit contest, announced last week, the county was third in the number of persons registered from any one county at the fair. Clay county, with 435 registered, won the silver cup offered in the contest and Owen county was second with 343. The registration from this county was 250.

The Arlington Athletic Club figured in the list of winners in the horse shoe pitching match, held all week in connection with the state fair. The Arlington team had several entries and Herman Dyer and Raymond Dyer brothers, won the state championship in the doubles contest.

The two brothers were selected from the vast amount of material at Arlington and they held their pace in the contest, outdoing all comers that were entered. Besides winning the $75 cash prize, the two boys also won the large silver cup, given as a trophy. Raymond Dyer, the younger brother, was entered in the Junior contest and tied for first place.

Mr. Fielding won the following premiums:

Apples—Best ten varieties for commercial planting, first; ten varieties in tray for home orchard, first plate most beautiful apples, second.

COLLIDES WITH KLAN ISSUE

John W. Davis Meets Leaders Upon Arrival in Denver

Denver, Colo., Sept. 2.—John W. Davis, Democratic presidential candidate, collided with the klan issue again today when he went to Denver.

Only efforts of local democratic leaders prevented the klan demonstration against Davis, when he stepped off the train. He immediately went into conference with J. D. Barnett, democratic national committee man and other leaders, when he learned of the klan feeling in Colorado, particularly in Denver.

Jeffersonville City, Mo., Sept. 2.—A state platform plank denouncing the Ku Klux Klan by name, submitted by Samuel A. Baker, republican nominee for governor to a meeting of the party nominees for state offices here today, was approved without opposition and in all likelihood will be adopted tomorrow at a meeting of the state committee.

JURY USED FIRST TIME THIS TERM

Case of Jesse Nicholson Against Ithamer McCarty on Farm Contract Goes on Trial

DIVORCE SUIT IS FILED

Elsie Bush Asks Legal Separation, $500 Alimony and Custody of Child in Complaint

The jury was being used today for the first time in the September term of court, when the case of Jesse Nicholson against Itahamer McCarty got under way. The suit was a complaint on a farm contract, and in which the plaintiff was attempting to recover $250 judgment.

The jury selected this morning consists of the following twelve men: Ed Miller, Ted King, Claude Crane, John E. Laughlin, Lowell Norris, Joe Bogue, Jess Logan, Walter Barnes, Ed Benedict, James Evans, Tom Miller and Ed Loudon.

The case was not expected to last very long and a decision was expected to be reached this afternoon. Little trouble was experienced in getting a jury, and the trial started off on time.

Among the new actions filed is a complaint for divorce, filed by Elsie Bush against Shelby Bush, in which she alleges that he has abandoned her, and is now believed to be living in Cleveland.

The complaint says they were married April 21, 1915 and separated August 15 of this year. During their married life, she charges her husband with having a high temper, and being of a jealous disposition. She seeks $500 alimony and custody of their seven year old son.

John A. Knecht has filed suit against Roy Whittaker, in which the action is to foreclose a mechanics lien and for attachment of a machine involved in the alleged transaction.

The divorce suit Saturday of Ruby J. Hinchman against William E. Hinchman, was not completed, and it was continued for further evidence on Saturday of this week Gates Ketchum is special judge in the case.

In the other divorce suit heard Saturday by Judge Sparks, of Ella Hittle against Ora Hittle, the court took the evidence under advisement, and did not render a decision.

The divorce suit of Wiley Gallimore against Daisy Gallimore, was dismissed today. The plaintiff dismissed his action, and the defendant dismissed her cross complaint.

In the case of William R. Teel, et al., against John G. Beale, in which a change of venue had been asked, the court has sent the case to Shelby county for trial, and five days given to perfect the change.

In the complaint of Verne W. Norris as trustee against Clifford C. Travis and Dean Travis, the defendant defaulted and judgment on a note was awarded the plaintiff for $103.40 and costs.

Wilbur Hall went on duty this morning at the fire station, taking the place of Frank Nicholson, who resigned last week. He has been assigned to the pumper truck.

MAN'S GREATEST FACULTY IS FAITH

No Man Can Live Without it, Dr. John
M. Walker Says at Farewell Meeting at St. Paul's Church

ABRAHAM A SYMBOL OF FAITH

Retiring District Superintendent Expresses Delight at Being Able to be Present

"There is no greater faculty in man than faith," said Dr. John M. Walker retiring superintendent of the Connersville district, Methodist Episcopal church, in a sermon on "Faith" at a farewell union meeting for him Sunday night at St. Paul's church.

"Sometimes it is not the right kind of faith or the right measure of faith, but I judge that no man could live without faith."

His sermon was based on the faith of Abraham, who heeded the call of God and "made that extraordinary journey to the west," into a new land of which he knew nothing. "Although he had many battles," Dr. Walker said, "he was faithful to the end and Abraham has come to be the symbol of faith."

Dr. Walker said in the beginning that he should be with some of his charges which were struggling to meet their conference obligations, but asked that no one mistake that he did not appreciate a farewell meeting being held for him and the delight that he had in being able to be present.

In closing his sermon, Dr. Walker also referred to his leaving and declared that "we," referring to himself and his family, "have enjoyed the courtesy and hospitality that has been shown us during our residence here. Our relationships have been very delightful," he said in parting.

The Rev. E. G. McKibben presided at the meeting and in introducing Dr. Walker, said that he was recognized as a "splendid Christian man and stalwart preacher of the gospel."

The scripture lesson was read by the Rev. Gibson Wilson of the First Presbyterian church and the Rev. R. W. Sage of the First Baptist church delivered the opening prayer. An anthem by the choir and a duet by Mrs. George Wiltse and O. P. Wamsley were features of the service.

Faith is the substance of things hoped for and the evidence of things not seen, Dr. Walker pointed out as the definition of the epistle from which he read a brief passage.

"Christian faith differs from other faith only in the thing that it centers itself in," he asserted.

Dr. Walker showed that faith is the center of everything; that basis

GET AT THE CAUSE!

Many Rushville Folks are Showing How to Avoid Needless Suffering

There's nothing more annoying than kidney weakness or inability to properly control the kidney secretions. Night and day aches, the sufferer is tormented and what with the burning and scalding, the attendant backache, headache and dizziness, life is indeed a burden. Don't's Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys—have brought peace and comfort to many Rushville people. Profits by this Rushville resident's experience:

Clair Maple, stationary engineer, 930 N. Arthur St., says: "My kidneys were out of fix and backache was the first thing to show up. Early in the day, there was lameness across the small of my back, which was worse when I did exerting work. Catches across my kidneys were bothersome, too. My kidneys didn't act often enough and every now and then, headaches came on. Don't's Pills, from Hargrove & Brown's Drug Store, rid me of every sign of kidney trouble."

ness couldn't last without it and that it figures in everything we do.

"Faith is an essential of life," he continued, "and Christian faith is simply applying it to higher and nobler things. Nothing is more absurd than to contrast faith with reason. They go together. Faith is not a substitute for common sense or work, but is to operate in connection with these things."

"There is not as much doubt that rational faith will be rewarded as there is that a Rush county farmer will get a crop of corn if he plants and tends it properly," the minister asserted.

"But there is a difference between faith in things and faith in people. It works all through life and it works in religion."

There is something far better than trusting in the promises of God and that is trusting in God himself, he said, and referred to the faith of Job as being the kind people must have.

A person might be able to understand church doctrines and be a poor Christian, Dr. Walker pointed out, and another might know nothing about creeds and be a glorious Christian.

"Faith in Jesus Christ as the saviour of the world and as my personal saviour is the kind of faith we need," he added. "If people can just look to Jesus, His beauty will lay hold of them. The greatest faith is not in God's promises or the scriptures, but in God himself."

"People who have no faith in their fellowmen are pessimists and those who have no faith in God are atheists, and it is hard to tell which is the worst," Dr. Walker declared. "If we have faith in men, it will lead to faith in God, and if we have faith in God, we will have faith in men."

"It must be a rational faith when it comes to men. We must assume that every human being has the elements of greatness and the elements of iniquity."

In summing up Dr. Walker said that Abraham never saw many of God's promises fulfilled, but he had the inspiration of this great faith all through life, and he had the power of faith and the triumph of faith.

"It's a great thing," he continued, "to have a faith that can't be realized in this life. The glory about the faith of Abraham is that it was so great that it has cast itself down through the ages. We all know that if the world is to be saved at all, it is to be saved by a faith akin to that of Abraham. If the church, ministers, Christians, if people all over the world have faith, we will see glory such as has never been seen. God's glory has not been exhausted yet."

MOVIES

"A Self-Made Failure"

"A Self-Made Failure", the J. K. McDonald production for First National, which is to be shown today and Tuesday at the Princess theatre, has been pronounced by many of the film critics as the best farce comedy of the year.

The picture includes every ingredient which has made motion pictures a popular entertainment. The director, William Beaudine, has not missed a chance. Most of the tears in it come from convulsive laughter but some will come from sorrow and deepest tragedy that have been intermixed with a plot that is largely in the nature of a farce.

The success of "A Self-Made Failure" threatens to even surpass McDonald's former successes, "Penrod and Sam" and "Boy of Mine." Ben

Training The Disabled

The U. S. Veterans' Bureau, though it has been condemned, is doing a very creditable work in restoring disabled ex-service men and women so that they may again take their place in the world and become useful citizens.

The bureau is appealing to prospective employers to give consideration to these men and women, who seek not charity, but a chance to earn a living.

The fact that they have not permitted their handicaps to darken their lives, but have striven to fit themselves for a production occupation, is recommendation enough that they will make valuable employees.

There are approximately 52,000 men and women in vocational training and 67,000 have already been rehabilitated and have gone into employment.

They are normal in appearance, ability and their desire to be self-sustaining. Less than five per cent have any apparent disability and more than ninety percent are able men and women, viewed from the standpoint of the occupation for which they are being fitted. Their disability consists of handicaps only insofar as their previous occupations are concerned.

They deserve wise and sympathetic consideration, not alone because of the service they rendered their country in time of need, but because they have shown a determination to overcome their handicaps and take their rightful places in gainful employment.

Back Home Again

When Wilbur and Orville Wright made their flights in a heavier-than-air machine at Kitty Hawk, N. C., twenty-one years ago, they did not visualize the scene that was enacted in Boston when four intrepid American aviators received their first plaudits from their countrymen for circuiting the globe in an airplane.

Two decades is but a short time, yet the first airplane flight was less than a minute, and now traveling 23,000 miles in less than five months over portions of the earth where transportation is impossible is a proved fact.

The possibilities of the next two decades stagger the imagination. What the future holds for aviation, few will be willing to hazard a prediction.

But America will lead in its development, because here it was born and here it has made its greatest strides.

The natural ingenuity and resourcefulness of the sons of the new world will find expression in this enchanting field of endeavor where fearlessness and the will to conquer the unconquerable count the most.

HUNT'S DAILY LETTER

BY HARRY B. HUNT
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON—As a dramatist, Prince Antoine Bibesco, Rumanian minister to the United States, is a prize diplomat.

That seems to be the decision of first-nighters who witnessed the opening here of a new "farce" by the princely playwright, entitled, "Married Life."

On the theory that a diplomat is measured by his ability to keep others guessing, never permitting the public to know definitely just what's what, the reviewers are agreed that the diplomat held the upper hand of the playwright during the composition of the play.

For even after a post-premiere consultation, during which they interviewed each other at length, the critics were unable to decide what it was all about.

The one point on which agreement was reached was that the "farce," if farce it was—they couldn't agree on that—would have to undergo a major operation by dramatic surgeons if it is to live out the season.

THIS verdict doubtless was a hard blow to the prince. Possibly it lowered the regard in which he has insisted he held Washington audiences.

No less a personage than her royal highness, Queen Marie of Rumania, was a patroness, by proxy, at the premiere, and diplomatic Washington was out in full force, sweltering in the boxes through one of the hottest and most enervating evenings the capital has known in years.

Both as a literary and social affair, the opening of the Bibesco drama had been looked forward to as a possible milestone in capital life. For was not Prince Antoine the author of "Jacques Abran," which the great Rejanne produced in Paris several seasons ago?

And did not the incomparable Duse herself portray the leading role in his "La Jaloux"? Here was no novice at the playwright's pen, but a cosmopolitan gentleman, a diplomat and a prince, with, with European successes to certify his ability as a man of letters!

PERHAPS being a diplomat has smothered Bibesco's dramatic facility. Perhaps the exactions of the English language hamstring his efforts at expression. Or perhaps Washington critics are too provincial and unsophisticated to grasp the significance of the situations presented in "Married Life."

Anyway, the consensus of critical opinion seems summed up in the following paragraph from the most kindly review:

"Either one thing or the other: Prince Bibesco has written the greatest play ever produced in America or he has staged the biggest joke. The play should be cut at the beginning, in the middle and at the end."

Which statement reveals the reviewer as more dramatic than diplomatic.

WEATHER in Washington, as elsewhere throughout the country, it seems, is most unseasonable.

September, instead of bringing cooling breezes, ushered in the hottest spell of the year. And the boats of the oyster fleet, instead of coming to port with cargoes of "succulent bivalves," are tying up laden to the gunwales with—watermelons!

RUSHVILLE STEPS ON FAST COLORED TEAM

Defeats A. B. C. Aggregation of Indianapolis Sunday, 5 to 4. Winning In Tenth

SHAW'S PITCHING FEATURE

The Rushville baseball club stepped on the fast colored A. B. C. team of Indianapolis here Sunday afternoon, going ten innings for a victory, which resulted in a 5 to 4 score.

The feature of the game was the pitching of Shaw, who held the colored team to eleven hits, and struck out 13 of their batters. Adams was on the mound for the visiting team and he allowed 9 hits and struck out 4.

In the second inning, Shaw hit the ball over the fence for a home run with McCarty ahead of him, and the game was airtight with the score being tied in the ninth, at four all.

Ricketts caught a good game behind Shaw, and the local fielders played in first class style. The colored team was one of the best attractions played this season, and they will play a return game here September 21. Arlington will play here next Sunday.

TEAM TO WEAR DOBBIE PANTS

Crawfordville, Ind., Sept. 8.—The Wabash college eleven this year will be equipped with the famous Gilmore Dobbie pants, it was announced today. The pants are especially designed by Gilmore Dobbie, football mentor of Cornell university and provides extra protection for the legs although they are unsightly.

New York—Luis Lacy, captain and star back of the British polo team is incapacitated by an attack of the Shingles and may not be able to play tomorrow in the first of the international cup matches against the American defenders.

Tennis Stars Will Hold Places

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Sept. 8.—Individual domination of American tennis, which has been a big feature of the popular court game since the war, may continue for several more years if the form shown in the national championships this summer can be accepted as reliable.

Mrs. Molla Mallory, who outlasted the entire woman's division for six years, gave reason to believe by her game in Europe and in the U. S. this season that her regime has passed definitely and finally. Not only did the former champion fail to regain the title she lost at Forest Hills last summer, but she played so erratically that she may have to give up her No. 2 place on the national ranking list to Miss Mary K. Browne, the champion of 10 years ago who pulled a spectacular comeback this season.

While Mrs. Mallory has passed there has been developed another champion who should, in the natural course of events, reign as long, if not longer, than she did. Miss Helen Wills, the 18-year-old California girl, proved at Paris that she is the best tennis player in the world when she won the Olympic singles championship from a field that represented the strength of the entire world. Trane, Mile. Lenglen did not play, but there were circumstances in her refusal to play that add to, rather than detract from the prestige of the American girl's performance.

In winning the American national championship for the second time, Miss Dills showed positively that she is the best of all the American players. During this season she reached the heights of greatness and she has not yet developed the full power of her game. She most certainly will improve as she gets more experience and there is no rival in sight that can be regarded now as a serious menace to her title.

Miss Wills has shown that she is a better player than Mrs. Mallory, Miss Browne, Miss Eleanor Goss, Mrs. Marion Jessup and the other ranking stars of the American field. Everyone of the players ranked immediately below her are either at their best game or have passed it. They cannot be figured to improve and the young California girl looks better after every tournament.

The Wills regime will be threatened only by the arrival of some young player and there are very few kid players now who could be expected to develop enough of a game in three or four years to beat her.

Miss Helen Jacobs, a 10-year-old California girl, has been getting a lot of attention, and if she lives up to the fine things that are expected of her she may be the successor of the present champion.

DOUBLES PLAY MOVES
UP TO FINALS SUNDAY

Arbuckle and Newkirk Eliminate One Team But Have Hard Time With Cartmel Brothers

NOW READY FOR THE FINALS

Mike Arbuckle and Lavern Newkirk, by winning two doubles matches on the Memorial park courts Sunday won their way into the final round, in which they will attempt to wrest the title from the present champions, Dickman Dragoo and Russell Titsworth.

In the first match the Arbuckle-Newkirk team defeated the Pitman-Winkler combination in two consecutive sets. Although they were defeated the losers put up a game fight and should be formidable contenders next year.

In the second match the Cartmel brothers threw a terrific scare into the Arbuckle-Newkirk camp by coming within a game of winning the match before their opponents had won a set. This, being in the semi-final round, was a five set match, and it lasted for two hours and a half, many extra points and games being played. The first part of the contest was featured by the sensational lobbing of Barton Cartmel and back-court drives of Oliver Cartmel. Toward the end of the match Arbuckle, who had seemingly been in slump, displayed his usual steady and aggressive game. The score by games: 9-11, 8-10, 7-5, 6-3, 6-2.

This victory entitles Arbuckle and Newkirk to meet R. Titsworth and Dr. Dragoo in the finals for the doubles championship of the county.

Firmer in Ground—the RED TOP Anchor Plate is heavier and stronger than ever.

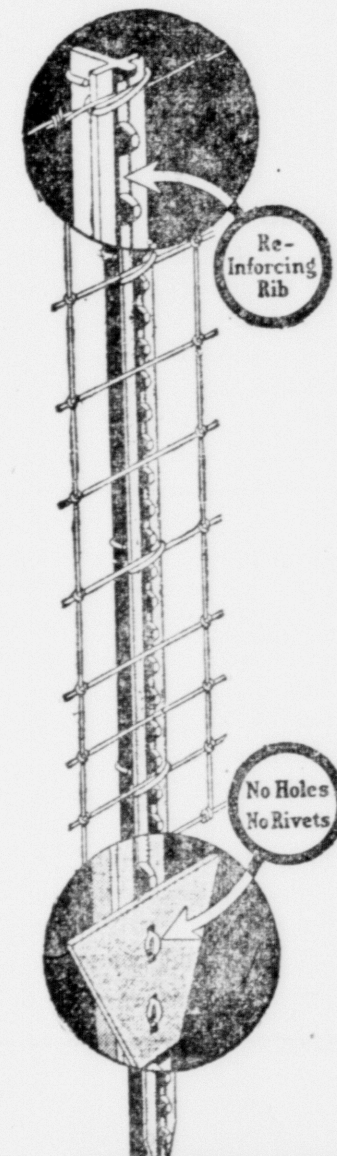

Longer Service—the new aluminum metallic finish and solid post make it longer lived.

Better looking fences—the aluminum metallic finish gives the post a neat, trim appearance.

Easier, cheaper setting—One man can set 200 to 300 posts per day.

More Efficient Fence Fastening—RED TOP Handy Fasteners makes it possible for one man to attach fencing to posts. And fastener holds fencing tighter.

The Daily Republican was in error in saying that the gravel road bond and interest fund levies would be more in every township except Rushville where it would be less and in Washington and Ripley, where it would be the same for next year. This is contrary to the case, because according to the levies fixed Saturday afternoon, Rushville township is the only one where next year's rate will be higher. This is due to the Stewart and Shanahan roads which are being built and for which the first bonds were issued this year.

This year's and next year's rates and difference in each township are as follows:

	'25	'24	Lo-	Up-
			wer
Ripley	41	41
Posey	40	54	14

AFTERMATH OF RAID

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 8—Abatement proceedings seeking temporary injunction against thirteen safe drink establishments in and near Fort Wayne were filed in federal court today. The petition asked that the places be closed pending trial of the proprietors and for one year after the trial. PRICE FOR CUTTING ROADS

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 8—The state highway commission today announced special prices it will charge for granting parties the privilege of cutting into state roads to lay drainage connections. Service All Housewives Like

When we tell you that your groceries will be delivered at a certain time we do it. Our deliveries leave at 8 and 10 o'clock in the morning and at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Most of our customers, when they place their order, know within a very few minutes of the time it will be delivered. This is a much more satisfactory service than the old haphazard way when an order might be delivered in ten minutes and possibly not for several hours.

You can save time if you order by phone. We give you exactly the same service as when you come to the store. Tell us what you want and we will see that you get it.

Look out for high prices on foods this winter, practically all staple foods and canned goods are already higher with prospects of further advances. Even breakfast foods have "gone up."

We will have a large shipment of LOYALTY flour in a few days, the price will be much lower than our present price on account of the fact that we have been buying in small shipments for the last few weeks, while waiting for the larger shipment.

What Good Is Food

Chiropractic Health Talk No. 81

By H. V. McCully, D. C. Ph. C.

Death turns the Clock Backward

UNCLE BEN SAYS:

"To be happy though married, nephew, always remember your wife's birthday, and always forget which one it is."

If your stomach will not digest it properly, if it produces misery instead of the nourishment which nature intended, what good is food? The sufferer from indigestion would omit meals if they could.

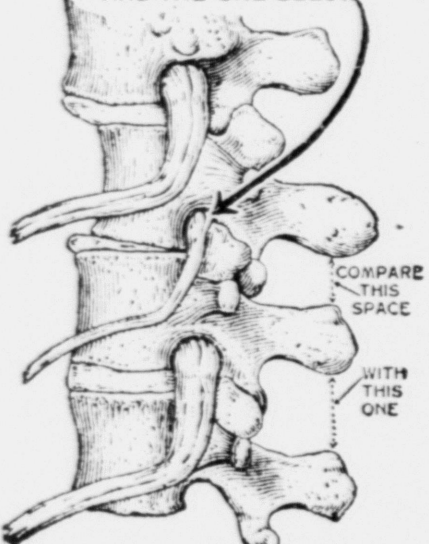

Thousands of people either needlessly suffer the pangs of indigestion, or curtail their meals to the minimum that nature will permit, with the idea of giving the stomach less work to do.

Others, using sounder reasoning, realize that there is a cause back of indigestion, a reason for the stomach failing to perform its appointed task, and come to us for removal of the cause.

Eats What He Pleases Now!

"For several years I had suffered with indigestion and about a year ago I developed a very severe attack. I was forced to go to bed and after three days of intense suffering decided to call a chiropractor. The first adjustment gave me great relief. The following day I was able to go to his office and take another, continuing until I had completed a full course. I have not had an attack of indigestion since, and my general health is greatly improved, especially my nervous system."—M. Shattuck, Chiropractic Research Bureau, Statement No. 2450-A.
